

GEOGRAFICO

TERZIERE DI LEVANTE

Chianti Classico

DOCG

The charming medieval hamlet of Vertine is perched 350 meters above sea level among the hills that surround Gaiole in Chianti. Its sides are covered with vineyards, which produce the Terziere di Levante. Gaiole, a mosaic territory of Chianti Classico, incorporates many of the most important characteristics of this slice of Tuscany, from its brightest and boldest notes to its most intriguing and spicy shades. This exuberant kaleidoscope of flavours translates into a wine with an intimate sweetness and exceptional elegance.

PRODUCTION AREA

Gaiole in Chianti

ALCOHOL CONTENT

14% Vol.

GRAPE VARIETIES

Sangiovese

AGING

12 months in 50 hl Slavonian oak casks.

TASTING NOTES

The wine has a ruby colour, complemented by brilliant nuances. The nose is filled with black cherry, wild berries, and black pepper. Fresh tamarind notes and gentle balsamic notes underpin the warm tannic texture, resulting in an intense yet juicy taste.

FOOD PAIRING

It goes perfectly with game and grilled meats and aged cheeses.

SERVING TEMPERATURE

18°C

BOTTLE

0,75 L - 1,5 L - 3L

